About The Pension Rights Center

The Pension Rights Center is a non-partisan non-profit consumer rights organization founded in 1976 with the mission of protecting and promoting the retirement security of workers, retirees and their families. The PRC also provides direct services to more than 2,000 individuals annually as well as serving as the resource center for six regional pension counseling and information projects covering 31 states that provide free legal assistance and advice to individuals with retirement benefit problems.
